This rate is gross before deduction, inter alia, of the employee's contribution to the pension scheme to be operated by the Board.

The rate of total remuneration of the Administrative Officer

- (a) may be adjusted from time to time in accordance with Government pay policy as applying to public servants generally
- (b) may be revised from time to time by the Minister with the consent of the Minister for Public Expenditure and Reform.

The rate of PRSI applying to the post will be in accordance with the relevant legislation or regulations of the Department of Social Protection.

Starting Salary

Candidates should note that the starting salary will be at the minimum of the appropriate payscale and will not be subject to negotiation.

Different remuneration and conditions may apply, if, immediately prior to appointment the appointee is already a serving Civil Servant or Public Servant.

Probationary Period

For the first 12 months the Assistant Principal Officer will be on probation.

Annual Leave

The Assistant Principal Officer will (in addition to the usual Public and Bank Holidays) be entitled to 30* working days holidays in each year to be taken at a time or times convenient to the Board.

Rest Periods

The terms of the Organisation of Working Time Act, 1997 will apply to this appointment.

Superannuation

The Assistant Principal Officer will be a member of the Single Public Service Pension Scheme, unless s/he is exempted in accordance with the Public Service Pensions (Single Scheme and Other Provisions) Act 2012. Full details of the Scheme and exceptions are available at <http://per.gov.ie/single-scheme/> Contributions are deductible at 3.5% of net pensionable remuneration and 3% of pensionable remuneration.

If the Assistant Principal Officer is not eligible to join the Single Public Service Pension Scheme, s/he will be a member of the Education Sector Superannuation Scheme. Contributions are deductible at the rate of 3.5% of net pensionable remuneration and 1.5% of pensionable remuneration, if fully insured, and 5% of remuneration if not. Members of the Education Sector Superannuation Scheme must also join the associated Spouses', Civil Partners' and Children's Pension Scheme and a contribution of 1.5% of pensionable remuneration generally applies for that scheme.

The Public Service Pensions (Single Scheme and Other Provisions) Act 2012, which became law on 28 July 2012, imposes a 40 year limit on the total service which can be counted towards pension where a person has been a member of more than one public service pension scheme, other than the Single Scheme. This may have implications if the Director acquired pension rights in a previous public service employment. The Act also applies abatement of pension for all Civil and Public Servants who are re-employed across the wider public service. This may have pension implications if the Director is currently in receipt of a Civil and/or Public Service pension or has a preserved Civil or Public Service pension which will come into payment during this employment.

Any prior service with the Board in respect of which a marriage gratuity or any other gratuity has been paid shall not be reckonable for pension purposes unless an appropriate refund is made in respect of that gratuity.
